6.1 APPLICATION FOR AMENDMENT. A proposal for amendment to the Zoning Ordinance may originate with the OMPC, a Legislative Body, any other government body, the owner of the subject property, or by a person having written authorization from the owner of the subject property. Regardless of the origin of the proposed amendment, an application must be filed with the OMPC at least twenty-one (21) days prior to the regular monthly meeting date requesting the proposed amendment, accompanied by such information as required by this Zoning Ordinance and in such form as established by the OMPC. The OMPC may require the submission of further information subsequent to the filing of an application as provided by the Zoning Ordinance. At the time of filing an application, a non-returnable filing fee shall be paid according to the schedule of fees as established by the OMPC. Upon the filing of an application for a Zoning Map amendment by a governmental body, the OMPC shall promptly notify the owner of the subject property by registered mail. Regardless of the origin of a proposed Zoning Map amendment, the owners of all property adjoining the subject property shall be notified by registered mail.

6.2 COMMISSION PROCEDURE. Upon the filing of an application for an amendment to this Zoning Ordinance, the OMPC shall study and review the application as provided in this Zoning Ordinance and the Bylaws of the OMPC.

6.3 NOTICE OF PUBLIC HEARING. Before voting upon any proposed amendment, notice of the time, place and reason for holding a public hearing shall be given as required by KRS Chapter 424.

6.4 PUBLIC HEARING ON APPLICATION. After notice of the public hearing as provided in Article 6.3 hereinabove, the OMPC shall hold a public hearing on the proposed amendment.

6.5 RECOMMENDATION OF OMPC ON ZONING ORDINANCE AMENDMENTS. The OMPC shall make its recommendation to the Legislative Body within sixty (60) days of the advertised public hearing. Before recommending to the Legislative Body that an Application for Amendment to the Zoning Ordinance be granted, the OMPC shall find that the map amendment is in agreement with the Comprehensive Plan or, in the absence of such a finding that (1) the original zoning classification given to the property was inappropriate or improper, or (2) there have been major changes of an economic, physical, or social nature within the area involved which were not anticipated in the Comprehensive Plan, and which have substantially altered the basic character of such area. The findings of fact made by the OMPC shall be recorded in the minutes and records of the OMPC. After voting to recommend that an application for amendment to the Zoning Ordinance be granted or denied, the OMPC shall forward its findings of fact and recommendation in writing to the appropriate Legislative Body. Once the OMPC has made a determination of fact and recommendation to the Legislative Body concerning the disposition of zoning on an individual tract of land, said tract of land, or any portion thereof, shall not be reconsidered for reclassification to the same zone by the OMPC for a period of at least six (6) months.

6.6 ACTION BY THE LEGISLATIVE BODY ON ZONING ORDINANCE AMENDMENTS. The Legislative Body shall not act upon a proposed amendment to the Zoning Ordinance until it shall have received written findings of fact and recommendation thereon from the OMPC. Before an amendment to the Zoning Ordinance is granted, the Legislative Body must find that the map amendments is in agreement with the Comprehensive Plan or, in the absence of such a finding, that (1) original zoning classification given to the property was inappropriate or improper, or (2) there have been major changes of an economic, physical or social nature within the area involved which were not anticipated in the Comprehensive Plan, which have substantially altered the basic character of such area. It shall take a majority of the entire Legislative Body to override the recommendation of the OMPC.
